

WORLD BOOK DAY

4 MARCH 2021

5 things you could do to celebrate World Book Day 2021:

1. Attend a free live digital World Book Day event, Books and the Real World, on World Book Day website at 10:30am on Friday:

<https://www.worldbookday.com/event/books-and-the-real-world/>.

The event lasts for approximately 30 minutes and will be starring Sita Brahmachari, Jess French and Katherine Rundell and hosted by actor and podcaster Jessie Cave.

2. Enter the World Book Day 'design a book token' competition. One lucky winner's design will be made into a real life National Book Tokens gift card, to be distributed across bookshops nationwide in time for Christmas. The winner will also win hundreds of pounds worth of books for themselves and their school! More details and how to enter at:

<https://www.worldbookday.com/competitions/design-a-national-book-token-2021/>

3. Listen to brand new, free audio books on the World Book Day website:

<https://www.worldbookday.com/world-of-stories/>

Scroll down to find a selection of 'Fiction' and 'Teen' books. Click on the books to read the blurb and find one that takes your fancy!

4. Get your free book with your digital World Book Day 2021 token. You can choose from a range of World Book Day 2021 books or use the token to give you £1 off any book of your choice! Go to this link to get your voucher:

5. Take a 'shelfie' to enter our competition!

We have spent more time than ever in our homes in the last year, but books provide a way to travel without leaving our rooms. Take a photograph of your bookshelf filled with your favourite books, or a photo of you reading one of your favourite books and share it (along with a couple of sentences either about why your favourite book is your favourite, or what the best book you have read in the last year is and why) with us by emailing to:

literacy@wordsley.dudley.sch.uk

A winning entry will be selected on 15th March. The winner will win points for their house and a small prize.
